

How to self-guide

This map of ASU's West campus is a broad map that will get you to some of the most popular spots on campus. Use this map for a general campus tour, or if you are looking for a more in-depth tour experience, scan the QR code to learn more about all of our tour options. These include audio tours and our self-guided tour app where you can find detailed tour routes or build your own tour experience.

Safety information regarding your campus visit

Arizona State University is committed to providing all students and guests with a safe campus environment by offering services and resources to keep you secure on and around campus. Please note that ASU is a free speech campus. tours.asu.edu/safety

ASU Police

Located on all ASU campuses, the ASU Police Department is a full-service, 24-hour campus police force. Its crime prevention unit coordinates a variety of safety training classes to ensure all students know how to avoid or react to any unsafe situation.

Emergency call boxes

Located throughout all ASU campuses and parking structures, emergency call boxes are marked with a bright blue light and connect directly to the ASU Police Department.

Key card access buildings

Many ASU buildings use a key card access system, so on-campus guests may not have access to enter certain buildings. This is to keep our students safe due to ASU being an open and public campus.

ASU Indigenous Land Acknowledgement

Arizona State University's campuses are situated on the homelands of many Indigenous peoples. ASU recognizes the original inhabitants of these lands. Watch the video:

Changemaker Central is a student-run centralized resource hub for academic courses and cocurricular activities involving social entrepreneurship, civic engagement, service learning and community service that catalyze student-driven social change.

Devil's Den student lounge and patio includes a student meeting space and is connected to Provisions On Demand Market, a great spot for students to grab a quick snack or beverage (like a Jamba Juice).

The Kiva, a Pueblo Indian word for a ceremonial structure, opened in fall 1989 and seats up to 100 students using portable tables for classes.

A rectangular pool with water fountains highlights Sands Classroom Building's west courtyard. Here, students obtain one-on-one help with their speaking and presentation skills, including use of associated technology, at the Communication Assessment and Learning Lab in the Sands third level.

The University Center Building serves as the center of campus life and houses Financial Aid and Scholarship Services, ASU Health Services, the Pat Tillman Veterans Center, and Student Accessibility and Inclusive Learning Services.

The Paley Gates, designed by modernist sculptor Albert Paley, link the beginning and completion of a Sun Devil's journey at the West campus. It's tradition for students to touch the gates as incoming first-years and just before their graduation ceremonies.

The Classroom/Lab/Computer Building, with a distinctive notched roofline, contains general purpose and computer classrooms, science laboratories, studios for art, dance and music.

Fletcher Library was the first building completed on the West campus. Group study rooms, the Student Success Center (a free tutoring center for writing, math, science and business) and the Computing Commons are just a few key resources available here.
